NATIONAL — The WMP Scholarship Committee and FAMACO Publishers, LLC are honored to announce the 2012 Words Make People Literary Excellence & Scholarship Award. The Scholarship is named in honor of American Muslim leader, humanitarian, and religious scholar, the late Honorable Imam Dr. W. Deen Mohammed (ra). Imam Mohammed inherited the struggle for dignity and economic justice through the African American saga and Islamic influence woven into the history of American Blacks both before and after slavery. He dedicated his life building bridges of interfaith respect and collaboration. He led millions to true faith, dispelling false notions of race and religion to make his Community a world leader for the proper understanding and practice of Al-Islam.

Part of the Imam’s legacy was his ability to inspire through the power of the written and spoken word; he stressed the important role words, whether in Scripture, higher education, or common communication, play in shaping thought and subsequent social, cultural, intellectual and moral expression. Many of his followers recall his proclamations, “Man means mind,” “Words make people,” and “Remake the world.” The Imam was not simply looking to inspire adherents, he was seeking to inspire his Community to become students of religion and critical free thinkers firmly established upon the foundation of Scripture, the Example of the Prophets (Peace be upon them), and the best of all knowledge mankind has been blessed to receive.
