—Welcoming Black History Month

FAMACO and American Muslim 360 Co-Sponsor African American “Islamic” History Contest

NATIONAL — FAMACO Publishers will co-sponsor with major media broadcaster American Muslim 360, the first ever African American “Islamic” History Contest during February. It will be the first time Islamic African American history is featured on such a venue for Black History Month. Executive Producer and host of American Muslim 360’s Friday morning program, AS SALAAM MAGAZINE Thomas Abdul Salaam (the Twin Servant of Peace), will do the honors of quizzing call-in contestants. It may not be as easy as it sounds since questions may cover the history of Muslims in America since before Columbus to the present.

Listeners can tune in beginning 7 a.m. Friday, February 3rd at www.americanmuslim360.com or by dialing into the show at (646) 716-4478. Each week through February 24, listeners will have an opportunity to answer questions and receive recognition as an American Muslim 360 Scholar of the Week. Gift prizes courtesy of FAMACO Publishers and Mizan Greetings will be awarded including books, Calendars, DVDs, CDS, greeting cards and more!

American Muslim 360 is known for its history making broadcasts and was recently named as one of the major Muslim media influencers in America. MIZAN GREETINGS is a scriptural greeting card company with designs featuring Qur’an, Hadith, and quotes from Imam W. Deen Mohammed with replications of original paintings by its founder and Mohammed Schools alumnus, Shareef Abdul-Malik. A familiar name, Shareef is also moderator of N.A.S.I.M. and N.A.B.OD. facebook groups. Learn more about Mizan
