

PRESS RELEASE: 2012 NATIONAL WORDS MAKE PEOPLE SCHOLARSHIP

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 10, 2012

Contact: Imam Rashad Shahid
scholarships@famacopublishers.com

The ink of the scholar is more valuable than the blood of the martyr.—The Prophet Muhammed (Peace be upon him)

JACKSONVILLE, FL, — FAMACO Publishers, LLC, the Words Make People National Scholarship Committee, The National Parade of Logos and Qalam Books Division are honored to announce the 2012 Words Make People Literary Excellence and Scholarship Award. Founded regionally in 2006, the scholarship is named in honor of American Muslim leader, humanitarian, and religious scholar, the late Honorable Imam Dr. W. Deen Mohammed. Imam Mohammed inherited the struggle for dignity and economic justice through the African American saga and Islamic influence woven into the history of American Blacks both before and after slavery. He led millions to true Islam, dispelling false notions of race and religion to make his Community a world leader for the proper understanding and practice of Al-Islam.

Part of the Imam's legacy was his ability to inspire through the power of the written and spoken word; he stressed the important role words, whether in Scripture, higher education, or common communication, play in shaping critical thought and subsequent social, cultural, intellectual and moral expression. Many of his followers recall his proclamations, "Man means mind," "Words make people," and "Remake the World." The Imam was not simply looking to inspire adherents, he was seeking to inspire his Community to become students of religion and critical free thinkers firmly established upon the foundation of the Holy Qur'an, the Seerah (history, pronouncements and approved actions) of Prophet Muhammed (Peace be upon him), and the best of all revealed knowledge G-d has blessed mankind to receive.

Imam Mohammed's mission and work, emphasizing religious scholarship, education, economic development, and the promotion of universal human excellence live on and continue to transpose a legacy of leadership onto the world stage. FAMACO Publisher's Vice President and Chair of the National Scholarship Committee, Mukhtar Muhammad states, "The 2012 national scholarship represents a natural progression. We can think of no better way to advance the Imam's work and leadership than through the promotion of education and especially through a scholarship based on an ability to write well. We are going to ask our business partners, our Community and all people of good will to join us in underwriting the scholarship. The more scholarships we can award, the more we can assist both our prospective youth leaders and the secondary institutions dedicated to preparing them for leadership." Mukhtar himself grew up under Imam Mohammed's leadership, attended the Community's schools, served as both a commissioned and enlisted officer in the Navy and eventually served by appointment of the Imam at the national levels of the Community's leadership. "There are still many things unfulfilled that the Imam wanted to see and the Community aspires to achieve; we can't do it with yesterday's thinking. We need students who can think critically and then put pen to paper to inspire the highest level of introspection and performance into the 21st century and beyond...that's what the Words Make People scholarship is all about...investing in tomorrow's leaders today for a better community and society," states Mukhtar.

The "Words Make People" Award is a scholarship and certificate given annually to a student who has demonstrated throughout his or her coursework, extracurricular activities, or vocation, the highest standard of excellence in written communication including creative writing, critical thought, research and analysis, exposition, or journalism. Past awardees have included honor graduates of the W. Deen Mohammed High School in Atlanta, Georgia. This year's applicants must be enrolled in or accepted by a full-time undergraduate (12 or more credit hours), graduate (9 or more credit hours), or professional program at an accredited university in the United States. Students awaiting acceptance notice from a University must receive acceptance not later than June 15, 2012. Final selection criteria include a weighted preference for current enrollment at or graduation from a secondary school in association with the leadership of Imam W. Deen Mohammed.

For more information or to download an application, please visit www.famacopublishers.com and click on the Scholarship link. Deadline for application is June 20, 2012.

FAMACOSM Publishers, LLC is a privately held company founded in 1996. As a limited liability corporation, we're well into our second decade of delivering quality products and services for individuals, businesses and government. From movies and music to health, beauty and more, we're building a global marketplace for faith-based communities. Through our Qalam Books™ imprint and Dawah Greeting Card™ line, we also produce, market and distribute a proprietary line of products including greeting cards, certificates, books, and calendars. We're committed to being an industry leader modeling the best business practices including giving back to our community. From fundraising initiatives for non-profits and scholarship programs, to proprietary publishing encouraging interfaith cooperation, FAMACO Publishers has more than a printing mission...we're guided by a belief and comprehensive business approach that through the power of words, we can help remake the world. Visit us at www.famacopublishers.com.

###